5/3/2024 – 15/3/2024

My final task as an intern was one of the best and most sharp-looking UIs I have made, and I was very dedicated to being as precise as possible when it came to implementing its UI/UX Design. Almost all of the components and widgets are custom-made and have been precisely tailored based on the logic and user experience of the application.

What's more is that I created this prototype which consists of 16 pages, in less than 10 days, which proved to me that I can be productive and get a lot of work done in a short period.

My internship project was a Tech E-Commerce Application Project that I developed. A lot of custom widgets have been created and used in this project, along with good optimization and the use of Getx state management techniques which were fully optimized for fast loading times and a seamless user experience.
